

2022 Annual Conference Objective Statements

THURSDAY Full Sessions

Reducing Risk of HAIs by Identifying Effective IPC Measures

Speaker: Kristi Juare, Minnesota Department of Health

CAIP IPCH Category: Infection Prevention Education and Training

Objectives

- Provide meaningful information to reduce surgical site infection risks.
- Discuss ways to improve surgical outcomes with infection control measures.
- Describe ways a healthcare worker can prevent the spread of infectious disease to themselves, patients, and others

Supply Chain Management via Preference Card Optimization

Speaker: Dr. Pearce McCarty III, CEO, DOCSI

AEU Category: Financial

Objectives

- Understand challenges to efficient supply chain management caused by preference card inaccuracies.
- Understand work being done to leverage digital technology for preference card optimization and demand signal refinement.

The Lumberjack: Energizing and Engaging Your Team

Speaker: Holly Huso, Founder, The Haymaker Sales and Leadership

AEU Category: Quality Management

Objectives

- Encourage personal development among audience in personal and work lives.
- Describe foundations and virtues of leadership.
- Help guide leadership in the healthcare industry.

Panel: Public Policy, CANDOR, and Legislative Update

Speakers: Nels Dyste, Vice President, Dyste Williams;

Doug Mason, Director of Claims, COPIC;

Thomas Poul, Legislative Attorney, Messerli & Kramer P.A.;

Dave Renner, Director of Advocacy, Minnesota Medical Association

AEU Category: Regulatory and Legal Issues

Objectives

- Provide updates to legislative topics affecting ASCs
- Inform audience of upcoming legislative priorities
- Help guide ASC leadership in navigating legal topics and public policy

FRIDAY
Full Sessions

Choosing Meaningful QAPI Studies: Four That Work, One to Avoid

Speaker: Maura Cash, HST Pathways

AEU Category: Quality Management

Objectives

- Provide a refresher on the QAPI process and procedure and possible areas for study.
- Discuss four survey topics that work, the identification process, and the outcome assessment.
- Discuss one survey topic to avoid and show how to identify additional subjects to avoid.
- Review a list of possible topics and how to recognize ones that might fit.

Burnout: Walking Back From the Edge

Speaker: Dr. Anne Nadine Maurer, TRIA Orthopedics, Park Nicollet Health

AEU Category: Human Resources

Objectives

- Recognize burnout
- Identify/learn 3 techniques for self-care
- Identify 1 goal to implement for self
- Resources for Burnout